

Multicultural Action Center Scholarship for NAMI 2008 Convention

June 13 - 16 in Orlando, FL

NAMI's Multicultural Action Center is providing financial support to consumers and family members who would like to participate in NAMI Annual Convention. The purpose of the scholarships is to support NAMI members with interest in multicultural issues to attend the Convention.

- Scholarships will be awarded up to $500 to cover the Convention registration fee, and a portion of your airfare, or hotel.
- Please note, the $500 stipend will cover only a portion of your total convention costs. Depending on your registration category, your airfare and which hotel you choose to reserve a room at, your total convention costs may range from $800 - $1200.
- Hotel rooms at the Rosen Centre Hotel are $148/night including tax. Rooms at the close by Red Roof Inn (a 5 minute walk) are $82/night including tax. Rooms at the close by Days Inn (a 7 minute walk) are $80/night, including tax. Visit the NAMI convention site (www.nami.org/convention) for details on how to make reservations at the hotel of your choosing.
- Scholarship amounts will be reimbursed upon submission of original receipts (Convention registration, airfare, or hotel) AFTER the Convention.
- All scholarship recipients are required to submit a 1-page Convention report.
- Scholarship reimbursements will not be processed without receipts or 1-page report.
- The deadline for submitting scholarship reimbursements is Monday June 30th. NAMI will not process any late or incomplete submissions.

How to apply:

Simply fill out the application form, complete all components, and provide one letter of recommendation.

Completed applications are due April 10.

Contact Marin Swesey at marin@nami.org or 703-600-1108 if you would like a Word version of the application or have any questions. Details about the convention can be found at www.nami.org/convention.